Use the spaces on the right side below to enter your answers and thoughts, and then save this document to your computer for future reference.

How have you discussed race with young children in the past?

If you have shied away from these conversations in the past, why have you?

Understanding the importance of these conversations early on, will you change your approach moving forward?

Other thoughts:

What was your 'a-ha' moment (moment of surprise or new information)?

What was your 'hurt' moment (feeling of discomfort)?

What will you do differently?
