How do you identify? What is important for others to know about your identity?

What misunderstandings have you previously held about the LGBTQ+ community that you think have changed from today's learning?

Why is it important to safeguard LGBTQ+ rights? How can you help do this?

Other thoughts:

What was your 'a-ha' moment (moment of surprise or new information)?

What was your 'hurt' moment (feeling of discomfort)?

What will you do differently?
