Creative Visions Inc.

1343 13th Street

Des Moines, IA 50314

www.cvonline.us

Mission Statement

THE MISSION: To develop economically vulnerable individuals, families, and communities into becoming self-empowered, self-responsible, and self-sufficient through education and economic empowerment.

THE VISION: To break the chain of poverty and hopelessness within vulnerable communities by empowering the individuals within them to become prosperous and productive citizens who contribute to and shape prosperous and productive communities.

Agency Description

Creative Visions was founded in 1996. Initially, our focus was to provide educational opportunities and resources to help address the rampant use of drugs, gang violence & crime involving At-Risk Youth. While we received dramatic results from our efforts, we soon realized that we were only addressing the symptoms of a greater problem. It became clear that in order to effectively amend the issues impacting the underserved and at-risk populations - on a long-term basis - a comprehensive approach involving the family and the community would be necessary to bring about the desired change. Our CEO, Ako Abdul-Samad is a Native Iowan born in Des Moines. He has been a Community Activist for over 50 yrs.

EMBARC (Ethnic Minorities of Burma Advocacy and Resource Center) was founded by and for refugees on the belief that sustainable change comes from a community empowered to help themselves. Its efforts work to elevate Burma refugee leaders, strengthen families, and build collaborations that support the elimination of barriers. All programming is evidence-based, and trauma-informed, and incorporates culturally relevant and linguistically appropriate education, services, and support. Programming uses a signature, peer-to-peer, train-the-trainer, "navigator" model to support this work.

EMBARC split from the organization RIVA in 2024 and is now a separate entity offering all traditional EMBARC services and programming.

New Directions Shelter is an emergency shelter for families with children. We assist our clients with securing housing, employment, childcare, & more.

The Home Connection provides long-term, supportive housing for families with children. We help clients develop a plan to attain financial independence in 2-4 years.

The Bidwell Pantry is the largest food pantry in Iowa. We provide food, clothing, & more to all who walk through our doors.

The Child Development Center empowers children to be life-long learners. We offer full-day care for children ages 2-5 years old.

Forest Avenue Outreach

2328 Paine Street NE

Bondurant, IA 50035

www.forestavenue.org

Mission Statement

Forest Avenue Outreach empowers youth and strengthens communities by providing hands-on, future-ready workforce training and holistic support. Through our nationally recognized pre-apprenticeship program and deep partnerships with state and regional unions, we equip young people with the skills, certifications, and confidence needed to thrive in 21st-century careers, especially in the skilled trades. Our mission is to break down systemic barriers and cultivate pathways

Agency Description

Forest Avenue Outreach was founded with a simple belief: that every young person—no matter their zip code—deserves the opportunity to build a strong, sustainable future. What began as a community garden in Des Moines' King-Irving neighborhood has grown into a workforce development powerhouse, connecting youth to careers in the skilled trades through nationally recognized training, mentorship, and union partnerships.

We've seen firsthand the transformative power of hands-on learning, and we're proud to walk alongside our students as they plant the seeds of a new future—on the job site, in the classroom, and in life.

Programs are geared toward transforming neighborhoods, building wealth and knowledge through the homeownership process, building stability through owner-occupied repair (home preservation and Rock the Block® events), and working toward financial self-sufficiency through pre-purchase education and financial coaching. GDM Habitat utilizes a collaborative, neighborhood-focused approach to identify areas of opportunity and build stronger, stable communities for low-income families.

GDM Habitat works with first-time homebuyers, creating affordable homeownership opportunities for qualified, hardworking, low-income families.

Healthy Birth Day, Inc.

1820 NW 118th Street

Suite 220

Clive, IA 50325

<https://www.countthekicks.org/>

Mission Statement

Our mission is to improve birth outcomes through programming, advocacy, and research. Health Equity is at the center of our work, with a goal to reduce the racial disparities that persist. We help save babies using the evidence-based Count the Kicks stillbirth prevention program, which educates expectant parents on the importance of tracking their babies' movements in the third trimester of pregnancy and to speak up if they notice a change.

Agency Description

Our vision is to replicate the success of the highly effective Count the Kicks campaign in all 50 states. We hope to reduce America's stillbirth by 32% as we have done in Iowa, which would save 7,500 babies from preventable stillbirth every year.

Heart of Transit

2824 104th Street

Urbandale, IA 50322

www.heartoftransit.com

Mission Statement

Heart of Transit Mission Statement:

To help central Iowa transportation providers create new programs, fund unique transportation services and implement on-going transportation options in central Iowa.

HIRTA Mission Statement:

Provide customer-focused community transportation with a commitment to excellence in safety and service promoting independent lifestyles for central Iowa residents.

Agency Description

Heart of Transit was created as a stand-alone 501c3 to increase HIRTA's reach in our communities. As a governmental body, HIRTA is unable to directly apply for grant opportunities and is also unable to partner with several United Way's in Central Iowa. HIRTA provides door-to-door, public transportation for anyone, there is no application or qualification necessary to ride HIRTA.

Transportation isn't just a convenience; it's the pulse of livability, ensuring everyone has access to the services they need and want. When a community member can't reach an essential service, it's as if that service vanishes from their reality. We help improve healthcare outcomes, increase access to education, and create access throughout the communities.

Our devoted team educates and nurtures children from infancy to school age. Each child will have the right and the attention to develop a positive self worth. Each child in our care will feel they have a secure base to develop positive relationships, explore the environment, and to learn through age appropriate play and planned experiences. We build strong relationships with our families to work toward a common goal, a well rounded child ready to succeed at school and life.

Young Women's Resource Center

818 5th Avenue

Des Moines, IA 50309

<http://www.ywrc.org>

Mission Statement

Empower participants to be strong, self-confident and resilient.

Agency Description

At the Young Women's Resource Center (YWRC), we believe that every girl deserves a life of possibilities. We help participants realize their full potential by providing programming to girls and young women ages 10 – 24 throughout Greater Des Moines. We offer support groups and services for all girls and young women, regardless of what they may be going through in their lives, through Empowerment, Young Moms, and Counseling groups. The YWRC is a safe place that reinforces the beauty, resiliency and strength that participants already possess. We are happy to make the Young Women's Resource Center a place girls and young women can find the things they need, whatever those things may be.

Youth Justice Initiative

250 Mills Civic Parkway

West Des Moines, IA 50265

www.yjifriends.com

Mission Statement

Our mission is to develop and sustain restorative processes in our community to promote healing, increase accountability, and provide support.

Agency Description

YJI began as a community-driven pre-diversion initiative to reduce youth contact with the justice system and has grown into a comprehensive model of Diversion, Enrichment, and Professional Development. Centered in collective community care, YJI uplifts youth and families through accountability, connection, and opportunity—maintaining the lowest re-offending rate in Polk County. Enrichment provides academic support, meals, and safe spaces with caring adults to belong, while TechConnect WDM creates opportunity through professional development, offering youth hands-on training to provide free technology support to older adults and digital safety education for youth and parents—building skills, leadership, and intergenerational connection.

Youth Law Center

300 Walnut Street, Suite 295

Des Moines, IA 50309-2266

www.youthlawcenter.org

Mission Statement

Youth Law Center (YLC) is dedicated to protecting abused and neglected children & youth, educating youth of their legal rights while also promoting statewide policies that positively impact children and their welfare. Our mission is to ensure children of Central Iowa have permanent homes where they are safe, loved and encouraged to flourish physically, emotionally, academically & socially.

Agency Description

YLC is dedicated to providing legal representation to our community's most vulnerable children. Annually we represent 1,200 plus children and youth in over 1,600 legal matters.

Our advocacy is not limited to inside of a courtroom. We strive to improve our clients' well-being by collaborating with community partners. We encourage systemic change by advocating for policies benefitting children and youth. Most of our clients fall well below the federal poverty guidelines, endure significant physical and emotional trauma while facing many challenges. YLC uses a multi-disciplinary team approach combining the disciplines of law & social work to provide a comprehensive plan for the social, emotional, educational & legal welfare of our clients.
