

National Volunteer Week Sample Blog Post

[Company Name] is Celebrating our Volunteer Impact during National Volunteer Week

It's National Volunteer Week, and we are excited and proud to celebrate our volunteers! We want to recognize and thank our [Company Name] volunteers who lend their time, talent, voice, and resources to help meet the critical needs of our local community[ies]. This week, we celebrate the impact of your service through our organizational volunteer opportunities, through your Volunteer Time Off, and other opportunities you take to give back to support causes you care about.

\*This is where you can add your own paragraph/statistics about your company's volunteers, events, and initiatives. You can also highlight your future opportunities and a statement about the importance of volunteerism to your company values. Example below. ***

"This year, we are proud to have put on 3 volunteer events with a total of 120 employee volunteers participating. We held a donation drive receiving over 300 items for local pantries and organizations, an in-person event with the Habitat for Humanity to help build a new house for a local family, and a virtual connection opportunity compiling 15 Literacy Kits for local elementary students. All of these helped us stay connected to our community through this unprecedented year! Below we wanted to highlight all our volunteers. (Include name list below)."

In addition to [insert volunteer opportunity hosted by your company], you are encouraged to use your VTO. One remote opportunity we would like to share is a United Way of Central Iowa Volunteer Time Off event on April 22 at 3 p.m. to help address homelessness.

Year round, United Way of Central Iowa offers leadership, guidance, and hands-on volunteer experiences to add value to our company's corporate citizenship practices. [Share other ways your organization/company partner with United Way and other nonprofits.]

We know that through our company's Corporate Social Responsibility programs, philanthropy, and volunteer efforts, you can make a difference where you work and live – and we thank you for all you're doing to create positive change.